BYLAWS of the
Alameda County Chapter
California Special Districts Association

ARTICLE I: NAME

Section 1. Name

The name of this organization shall be the Alameda County Chapter of the California Special Districts Association, hereinafter referred to as the ACSDA.

ARTICLE II: OBJECTIVES

Section 1. Objectives

The objectives of the ACSDA shall be:

- A. To further the interests of member districts in the provision of special district local government services for the people of the County of Alameda.
- B. To inform the public about the purpose and benefits of local special district government.
- C. To act as a local forum of member districts for discussion and consideration of special district issues and to establish positions on such issues to be advocated to other government agencies, including, but not limited to, the Alameda Local Agency Formation Commission, Association of Bay Area Governments, the County of Alameda, and the State of California.
- D. To establish a communication network among member districts as well as other governmental agencies.
- E. To carry out projects and programs which are of joint interest and mutual benefit to member districts.
- F. To make recommendations to the Board of Directors of the California Special Districts Association (CSDA).

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership

A. Regular Members

Any special district, independent and dependent, local JPAs and LAFCo whose boundaries, in whole or in part, are within the County of Alameda, may become a member of the ACSDA after review and approval at an Executive Board meeting.

B. Partner Members

Any non-profit organization that does not meet the qualifications of regular membership may become a partner member upon payment of annual dues after review and approval at an Executive Board meeting. Partner members may not vote or hold office on the ACSDA Executive Board.

Section 2. Dues

Membership dues shall be billed at rates established by the ACSDA Executive Board and ratified by the Membership annually on a fiscal year, July through June, and are due and payable on or before August 31st of each year.

Section 3. Special Assessment

When the income of the ACSDA is not sufficient to carry out the goals and responsibilities of the chapter, members may voluntarily accept a special assessment through a joint written agreement between the ACSDA and the member districts when specific needs are identified and the member districts determine to participate.

Section 4. Non-Liability of Members

A member of the ACSDA is not individually or personally liable for the debt, liabilities, or obligations of the ACSDA.

ARTICLE IV: MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Bi-Monthly Meeting

The members shall meet at least on a bi-monthly basis at a time and place to be determined by the membership or its President. Written or electronic copy of the membership meeting agenda shall be given to each member of the ACSDA at least five days before the meeting.

Section 2. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the members may be called by the President upon request of five of the members of the association. Written or electronic notice of the time and place of the special meeting of the members shall be given to each member of the ACSDA at least 20 days before the meeting, except in cases of good faith efforts or a declared emergency by said petitioners or the President.

Section 3. Quorum

A quorum at any of the meetings of the members shall consist of 50% of the membership.

Section 4. Voting

- A. Each member district shall be entitled to one vote. The vote of a district shall be cast by the designated representative of the member district present at the meeting in person, which may include a member of a Board of Directors or an administrator from a member district.
- B. Each member district shall provide, in writing, the name of the designated representative and one alternate representative at the end of each calendar year for the following year (January 1st to December 31st).
- C. Alameda County special districts identified in, and subject to, the Cortese-Knox-Herzberg Local Government Reorganization Act of 2000, are eligible to vote on matters relating to this act. The vote of the district shall be cast by the designated representative for these purposes.

Section 5. Rules Governing Membership Meetings

- A. The Rosenberg's Rules of Order shall govern the meeting of the members insofar as such rules are not inconsistent or in conflict with these Bylaws or the articles of Incorporation for the California Special Districts Association.
- B. An officer shall sign minutes of membership meetings.

ARTICLE V: OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers

The officers of the ACSDA shall be President, Vice President, Treasurer and two Members At-Large.

Section 2. Power of Officers

The officers of the ACSDA shall conduct all activities and affairs of the ACSDA in the furtherance of objectives as established in Article II.

Section 3. Term of Office

The officers shall serve for a term of two years. The officers shall be elected at the summer meeting of even-numbered years and shall take office immediately. Any officer may be elected for additional terms of office.

Section 4. Qualifications

Each officer shall, at the time of election, at the time of taking office, and throughout the term of office be affiliated with and authorized by a member district. An officer may serve as the district's appointed representative; however, a member district may designate another individual to serve as its appointed representative independent of the officer serving on the Board. In the event that any officer at the time of taking office or during the term of office is no longer affiliated with or authorized by a member district, the office shall thereupon become vacant, and said vacancy shall be filled in a manner hereinafter provided. No member district shall have more than one representative from that district serving as an officer of the ACSDA at the same time.

Section 5. Nominations

In even-numbered years, the President shall appoint a Nominating Committee to present a slate of candidates during the month of May to be considered at the summer meeting. Written or electronic notice of the slate of candidates shall be sent to members at least thirty (30) days prior to the summer meeting. Any person qualified to be an officer of this association may be nominated for office by nominations from the floor. Members nominated for President shall be eligible to take office only after filing a copy of a resolution adopted by the Board of the individual's district supporting such an election with the ACSDA.
